

CSIR appoints new Group Executive

Khungeka Njobe, newly-appointed CSIR Group Executive

(University of California, Los Angeles) and a management programme - Mastering T Enterprises - from the Institute for Management Development (Lausanne, Switzerland)

She serves as Chairperson of the National Environmental Advisory Forum (NEAF) d by the Minister of Environmental Affairs and Tourism during 2005. The NEAF provi strategic advice on issues of environmental management and governance, while also Minister of the views of stakeholders regarding the application of the principles of th Environmental Management Act.

Njobe was recently appointed to the United Nations Environment Programme Intern Board to the International Environment Technology Centre based in Japan. She is fu member of the South African Reference Group on Women in Science and Technolog South Africa's official delegation to the World Summit on Sustainable Development negotiations on biodiversity.

Dr Pat Manders, Operations Manager of CSIR Natural Resources and the Environme management team are responsible for managing the unit until Njobe's successor is ap

Previous page viewed

Designed for web viewing on 1024 x 768 screen size. To print, please select landscape paper orientation.

Copyright © CSIR 2006. All Rights Reserved | Revised: 14/9/107 | Feedback: EBAS Webteam